The Long Walk to Freedom, created by Community Works working with over 200 school students, features photographs, graphic timelines, archival materials, biographies, quotes and artwork. Through the unique lens of these young people the exhibit explores freedom, justice, and activism.

To learn how you can be part of The Long Walk to Freedom, its tours, public programs, workshops, symposiums and performances, visit www.communityworksnyc.org, www.theshabazzcenter.net or call 212-459-1854.

The Long Walk to Freedom is a multimedia, intergenerational, living history program that celebrates the power of an individual to make a difference.
